ORCID is for...

- Researchers
- Universities & Research Institutes
- Publishers
- Vendors & Service Providers
- Government & Policy Makers
- Funders & Facilities

ORCID is a free, unique, persistent identifier (PID) for individuals to use as they engage in research, scholarship, and innovation activities. Learn how ORCID can help you spend more time conducting your research and less time managing it. Learn more.

Step 4 of 5 - Visibility

Your ORCID iD connects with your ORCID record that can contain links to your research activities, affiliations, awards, other versions of your name, and more. You control this content and who can see it.

Visibility settings

By default, what visibility should be given to new items added to your ORCID Record?

-  Everyone (87% of users choose this)
Everyone can see these items
-  Trusted parties (5% of users choose this)
Only people and organizations you've given permission
-  Only me (8% of users choose this)
Items are private and only visible to you

Manage your Inspire account

▼ Account email address

Change the email address associated to your INSPIRE account. This is used by the INSPIRE system to contact you automatically (e.g. job ad closing, submission confirmation, etc.).

geurts@rice.edu

▼ Author email address

Change the email addresses registered on your author profile. These are used by other INSPIRE users to contact you and for the matching of your papers.

Update author information

▼ Orcid settings

Export your INSPIRE works to ORCID

This profile is already connected to the following ORCID: 0000-0003-2856-9090

Your claimed works will be exported automatically.

Link your ORCID iD with your arXiv account

We encourage all arXiv authors to associate their ORCID iD with their arXiv account. ORCID iDs are standard, persistent identifiers for research authors. For more information about ORCID iDs and their relationship to the arXiv, see the help page.

Your ORCID iD is <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-2856-9090>.
